This Week's Lesson: Halloween - Fear

Volume 1,Issue 21 October 17, 2010

I know that Halloween isn't really celebrated much in Australia - however by the witches, bats, jack-o-lanterns in the shops you might think otherwise! I know some students who have already attended some Halloween parties. Halloween provides us with a good opportunity to discuss spiritual things - many countries have festivals aimed at warding off evil spirits and are much more open to talk about evil spirits and their influence. The fear of evil spirits is very prevalent amongst many cultures and a lot charms, prayers, and special rituals are carried out to keep them away. I knew of one Taiwanese student when doing this lesson, shared that her mother would tap each piece of furniture before she cleaned it to ask the spirits to leave before she disturbed them. Early on in his ministry, Jesus demonstrated He has power and authority over evil spirits, through the healing of a man with an evil spirit in him (Mark 1:21 - 28). Please pray for each teacher and student as you cover this important topic.

Love to you all -
