This Week's Lesson: Amazing Grace

This week's English Corner lesson is based around the movie and song - Amazing Grace. Students may not be familiar with the song - so it is always good to have someone able to sing or hum the song and have the lyrics for students to follow at the end of the lesson - with difficult vocabulary explained at the bottom of the song handout. There are many You Tube videos for Amazing Grace - this one is quite good - you may only want to play the first part pertaining to John Newton as a warm up to the lesson or at the conclusion. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1xQFYWXPrxs&feature=fvw

We have also attached some picture resources for the lesson (see attached).

Some slave statistics in Newton's time can be found at: http://academic.udayton.edu/race/02rights/slave04.htm

An excellent source of statistics for human trafficking today, can be found at: http://paulstewart.typepad.com/endangeredfaith/2008/10/statistics-on-human-trafficking.html

English Corner is about Teaching English through parables and discussion but it is also about raising awareness of issues that concern all of us as human beings - lessons that can help people with their English but also provide an opportunity for change not only for the individual but for the community is what we are passionate about. this story is about a man who changed his mind - we pray that many in your classes may change their minds.

God bless you in your ministry
